

Your organization might want to consider applying for a National Planning Grant.

To learn more about the National Planning grants, click here to go to the address below.

http://www.americorps.gov/for_organizations/apply/national_apply.asp#AmeriCorps_National_Planning_Grants

Helpful information on developing an AmeriCorps program is available through the Program Start Up Guide, click here to download from the address below.

http://nationalserviceresources.org/files/legacy/filemanager/download/grantee_resources/programStartupGuide.pdf

“The Planning Grant allowed Rebuilding Together to plan our national AmeriCorps program in a thoughtful and structured way - from selecting appropriate sites to creating program infrastructure and materials. We were assigned a coach that really helped us think through our program design and goals. The planning grant is perfect for grassroots organizations that need additional resources and support to successfully compete in the national grant process.”

*-- Jessica Lowe
Director of National Service Programs
Rebuilding Together*

AmeriCorps National Grants Corporation for National and Community Service
1201 New York Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20525

E-mail: AmeriCorpsNational@cns.gov

Phone: 202.606.7508